Esso Highlands Limited recruits its first intake of engineering graduates.

Esso Highlands Limited operator of the PNG LNG Project has recruited its first intake of engineering graduates for permanent roles in the Production organization

The six engineers are based in Melbourne and will spend time at the Longford Gas Plant over the next 18 months and are being inducted with Esso Australia's 2011 graduates.

They will be trained in engineering roles including pipeline, subsurface, corrosion, machinery and facilities surveillance.

Participating interests in the PNG LNG Project include Esso Highlands as operator (33.2 percent), Oil Search Limited (29.0 percent), the National Petroleum Company of PNG (PNG Government, 16.6 percent), Santos Limited (13.5 percent), Nippon Oil Exploration (4.7 percent), Mineral Resources Development Company (PNG landowners, 2.8 percent) and Petromin PNG Holdings Limited (0.2 percent).
